About United Congregations of Metro- East

United Congregations of Metro-East

United Congregations of Metro-East (UCM) is an interfaith, multiracial community organization. UCM's coalition of congregations transcend the divisive barriers of race, economic status, religion, partisan politics, and geography to unite in a powerful voice for justice. We believe all citizens deserve to have a voice in the decisions that affect the quality of their lives. Our mission is to eliminate the root causes of systemic injustice in our region. UCM was established in the year 2000 with six churches and has now grown to 28 congregations and three community organizations with over 24,000 members. Despite their different backgrounds, the leaders of UCM share the vision of a society where all persons have equal opportunity and the resources needed to reach their full potential.
